

Celebrate Empathy

We, at Maine NVC (Nonviolent Communication) Network are pleased to announce that we are offering these free, upcoming events to promote the practice of empathy and the principles of NVC in our world.

- NVC Booth at the Common Ground Fair again September 24-26, 2010
- 2 hour Introductory Presentation on Empathy and NVC at the Camden Library on Tuesday, September 28th, from 1:30 – 3:30 pm
- Saturday, October 2, 2010 a one day free seminar on Restorative Circles
- Sunday, October 3rd, 2010, a one day free seminar on Empathic Relating and it's key principles.

To view Gina Cenciose, lead presenter at these events, sharing some key differentiations of Nonviolent Communication, go to <http://www.nvctraining.com/media/GC/TP-key-diffs-200812/>

To register for any or all of these events, contact Norman Pasewalk at:

normanpasewalk@gmail.com

The goal of World Empathy Day (www.worldempathy.org) is that on October 2nd, 2010, in every country, on all continents, people will gather to listen, connect and act empathically. As greater understanding emerges, we will see differences resolved peacefully, trust between people will grow, and we will manifest creative solutions to global problems.