

The Power of Empathy

Intermediate NVC workshop

April 23 – 25, 2010

with Gina Cenciose (certified NVC trainer & CNVC certification assessor)

& Peggy Smith (certified NVC trainer)

In these three full days we will interactively explore that deep healing space within every person, which in NVC we call Empathy. Empathy is a space within which you connect with your own wholeness, and from which you are able to extend outward open-heartedly toward others - joining, embracing and celebrating life.

We will focus our loving attention, with gentleness and allowing, onto our inner voices of doom, gloom, scarcity and fear in order to reconnect to our deepest yearnings of love and compassion.

This residential workshop is the first session of the 2010 Maine NVC Integration Program; there is also space for a few others to join as a stand-alone workshop.
