

Restorative Circles

A Community Process for Supporting Those in Conflict

Saturday, November 3 in Belfast, ME

9 am to 4 pm

A workshop for everyone interested in learning about Restorative Circles

In this workshop you will:

- Share how we deal, and how we would like to deal, with conflict
- Learn and practice aspects of the Restorative Circle process
- Experience how a Restorative Circle works

The Restorative Circles process was developed in the mid-90's by Dominic Barter in Rio de Janeiro in response to violence and community breakdown in the favelas near where he lives.

Where:

This workshop will be held at the Library in Belfast (106 High Street).

Fees:

There is no set fee. Donation will be requested based on the actual costs of presenting the workshop. Clear communication of these costs will be made to all participants in mid-October. All donations are voluntary and everyone is encouraged to attend regardless of ability to pay.

Facilitators:

Linda Cote-Small and Kristi Kirkham, with others from the Midcoast Restorative Circle Practice Group, will lead this workshop, drawing from their experience with Dominic Barter, from a variety of live circles, and from several years of practice in community.

“Out beyond ideas of right-doing and wrong-doing there is a field. I'll meet you there.”
